

ACTORS TEMPLE
Congregation Ezrath Israel

July 29, 2013

Dear Members and Friends of the Actors' Temple:

Shalom! This year the Holy Days begin on September 4th. We are planning a full complement of services on both Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, conducted by Rabbi Jill Hausman, with cantorial intern Aron Bederson assisting. Music will be provided by pianist, James Besser, and violinist Marina Kifferstein on Kol Nidre. On the second morning of Rosh Hashanah we will again have a Creative Service. Please email Rabbi Jill to participate and lend your talents.

There is a free Community Service on Thursday evening, September 5th, the second night of Rosh Hashanah, which welcomes everyone. For those wishing to stay at the Temple all day on Yom Kippur, the synagogue will remain open and there will be a study session. A children's program, including children's services, are planned on both days of Rosh Hashanah and on Yom Kippur, in the mornings. Please let us know on the ticket order form the times and dates you would like your children to attend, so that we can plan appropriately. Enclosed you will find a schedule of High Holy Day Services and related events.

Since our dues are extremely low, we do ask our members and friends to purchase Holy Days tickets. Tickets are $150 for members and $250 for non-members. (We have one of the lowest ticket prices in New York.) Again this year, all ticket prices include the Break-Fast, for which we ask you to please make reservations, so that we know how many people to expect. Please either fax the ticket purchase form to the Temple or mail it in, or call our office to order tickets, or pay online. You may pay by check or credit card. No one is ever turned away because of financial need.

If you are not yet a member of the Actors' Temple, but would like to become one, we welcome you! We are offering High Holiday tickets at member prices if you sign up and pay your 2013 membership dues of only $75 for individuals or $150 for families.

PLEASE NOTE:

There are many volunteer opportunities at the Temple for the High Holidays. We appreciate all who would like to volunteer as ushers in the sanctuary, or to set up or clean up the Break-Fast, or a Kiddush after the service. Please indicate how you would like to help on our reservation form, or call the office, 212-245-6975, or e-mail info@theactorstemple.org, to volunteer.

We look forward to seeing all of you as we embark on a new and meaningful year together.

Sincerely,

Robert J. Reicher, President

Rabbi Jill Hausman
